

W:O:A Soccer Cup

Conditions:

- At least 5 players
- Every team has to bring a referee

Tournament organization :

- Group phase There will be six groups of four teams. Every team will play again every other team in their group, the best teams will advance to the main phase.
- Main phase The best teams play in a KO-System (second-, quarter-, semifinal, final)
- Every Game takes 2x5 minutes. After 5 minutes the teams change sides
- The whole team has to arrive 10 minutes before the game at the Soccer Cup Headquarter

Rules:

- The goal by-line leads to a corner/goal kick
- The side by-line will be ignored. No tackles near the demarcations. If the ball flies above the demarcations, the other team curls the ball in.
- There will be no back pass rule (The keeper can take the ball in his hands anytime)
- The keeper can move in the whole field
- Players can make goals from the whole field. No throw-in goals.
- There are just indirect free kicks
- No additional time at the end of the game
- Free player exchanges

Consequences:

- Fouls leads to indirect free kicks
- The referee can give two minutes penaltys or send-offs

Are there further rules?

It is important to remember, that we play the games at W:O:A Soccer Cup just for fun. This is no professional football. Avoid injuries and do not play aggressive, so that no one gets hurt. We are on a metal festival and not in the national league.

Which shoes are allowed?

Allowed:

- Gym shoes
- Cam shoes
- Any other normal street or sport shoes

Forbidden:

- Spikes
- Combat boots or something similar
- Sandals or something similar

What happens if a team comes too late?

It is not possible to wait for teams. If a team is not on time, the other team wins 5:0.

What is forbidden?

- Glass (bottles)
- Spikes
- Aggressive behavior

What happens if someone get hurt?

The Soccer Cup team takes no warranty for injuries, theft or any other problems during the cup. The paramedics are 100-150 meters away from the field and can be found on the Wacken map.

Is the Soccercup liable for anything?

The Orgateam is not liable for anything. Everyone is responsible for oneself.

Can referees play in a team?

Every referee can also play in a football team.
A referee will never be used in a game when his own team plays.