

Hooked: Fishermen win Soccer Cup finals

Close shave during the „Soccer Cup“ finals: 2017's winners „Angelsheim Rostiger Haken“, (HMC 07)

WACKEN Shoot low, aim high - 2017 was another year you could be sure that „You'll never kick alone“. A total of sixteen fan teams from all over the world participated in Wacken's own „Soccer Cup“ in front of „Jailhead City Circus“ where they kicked some serious ass and of course ball. A tremendous success even although the tournament had to be a bit smaller this year. After tough and hard-fought matches the team „Angelsheim Rostiger Haken“ (\"Fishing Club Rusty Hook“) won the final against „Pferd 04 Leberstute“ (\"Party 10 liver failure 04“) with a final score of 1:0, while „Colossalen“ got third against „Team Lemmings“ scoring 3:1.

Both the soccer and the fancy dress awards were handed over at the ceremony on „Beergarden Stage“. The award for best football shirt went to „Team Metalcoats“ from Mexico and number five in this year's cup. They used masks from Mexican wrestling „which is just part of our culture“, said Irwin Hernandez, accepting the award together with Marco Jasso.

„Although they liberally could see, well, nothing they were clearly in the lead when it came to outfits.“, said cup manager Christine Scafid, awarding them a „Geier Pflly“, in proper style with slipknot around the neck. All awards have been sponsored by Metal-Train e.V. Ludger Hütz
